

Application to register as a town green, land at Humpty Hill, Faringdon, Oxfordshire

1. I, Stephen Barlow, of 1 Westland Road, Faringdon, state that I have lived in Faringdon since December 1988 at the above address.
2. Humpty Hill has been accessible as an open space for the whole duration of my residence in Faringdon and there's never been any suggestion that the land has been anything other than public access land.
3. My family and I have used Humpty Hill on a regular basis for the following activities:
 - Picnics in the summer
 - Sledging in the snow
 - Ball games throughout the year
 - Blackberrying
 - Kites
 - Hide and seek and other similar games
 - Walking
4. When our children were at Infants School (located in the adjacent Canada Lane) the land was used for nature trips and games (egg throwing is memorable).
5. I have observed others using the land for dog walking and similar activities as above.
6. I believe that the facts stated in this witness statement are true.
